

Guardian Angels Central Catholic

2025 School Board Candidates

GACC School Board elections will take place on the weekend of May 17th and 18th. Voting will take place after Mass. Additionally, parishioners are able to vote in the parish office on Monday, May 19th or Tuesday, May 20th from 8:00 AM - 4:00 PM. You may vote for up to two (2) candidates.

To learn more about the Guardian Angels Central Catholic School Board, please visit the school website, gaccbluejays.org - under "About GACC > School Board"

Lindsay Eisenmenger

Brief Biography

My name is Lindsay Eisenmenger. My husband Scott and I have been married for almost 18 years. We have three children, Ethan - 8th grade, Abigail - 5th grade, and Audrey - 3rd grade, and they all attend GACC. I obtained a Bachelor's degree in Animal Science with a minor in Agribusiness from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. I have loved being a stay-at-home mom for the past 14 years. I believe that our priorities in life should be God, marriage, and family, in that order. I am applying to be on the GACC school board because I care so much about the place where, and the people with whom, my children spend their days during the school year. I would love to serve in this capacity to help determine the very best for our school by seeking God in all things.

Why do you want to serve on the GACC School Board?

As stated above, I am applying to be on the GACC school board because I care so much about the place where, and the people with whom, my children spend their days during the school year. I would love to serve in this capacity to help determine the very best for our school by seeking God in all things.

Adam Guenther

Brief Biography

I was a graduate of Central Catholic in 2006. I moved back to West Point in 2015 and married my wife Hannah in 2017. Our daughter Charlotte attends GACC and is in the 6th Grade. I manage our family feedlot west of West Point.

Why do you want to serve on the GACC School Board?

I feel like you cannot make change or affect the direction of an entity if you do not get involved. I think the school serves as a point of pride for the community and I would strive to help make it better.

* Additional Candidates on the Back ****

Britney Kaup

Brief Biography

I grew up in West Point, Nebraska, and am a proud graduate of Guardian Angels Central Catholic. I went on to earn my undergraduate degree in Banking and Finance from the University of Nebraska Omaha and later completed my Master's in Business Administration at Bellevue University. I am married to my husband, Brett, and we have two children, Beau and Bristol. Beau is currently in Pre-Kindergarten at GACC, and Bristol will be starting Pre-School this fall.

Why do you want to serve on the GACC School Board?

I want to serve on the GACC school board because I'm passionate about faith-based education and the impact it has on shaping students both academically and spiritually. Catholic schools play a unique role in nurturing not only strong minds, but also moral character rooted in the Lord's values. By joining the board, I hope to support staff and students, uphold the mission of Catholic education, and help guide decisions that prioritize student success and faith formation. I believe in working collaboratively to keep our schools vibrant, welcoming, and deeply connected to our parish and wider community.

Eric Klitz

Brief Biography

Eric Klitz is a proud alumnus of Guardian Angels Central Catholic. After attending the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, he returned to West Point in 2020, where he and his wife, Hannah, are now raising their two daughters. He works as the Assistant Vice President at Citizens State Bank, supporting the West Point branch and its customers. Eric is grateful for the strong foundation GACC provided him and would be honored to give back.

Why do you want to serve on the GACC School Board?

I am eager to serve on the Guardian Angels Central Catholic School Board because of the profound impact the school has had on my own life and upbringing. As a parent of young children, I feel a deep responsibility to ensure that future generations continue to benefit from the high-quality education and values that this school provides. I want to contribute to its continued growth and success, helping to shape an environment that fosters both academic excellence and strong moral development so that when my children are ready to attend, they too can thrive in this supportive community.

Paul Ridder

Brief Biography

Business Owner

Why do you want to serve on the GACC School Board?

I care a lot about this school and want it to continue to offer a great Catholic education in perpetuity and to continue to help with the development of our Catholic schools.