

Joseph Oligmueller Scholarship

Joe Oligmueller, life-time resident of West Point had a true passion and love of softball and baseball whether he was playing, coaching or watching the game. He played fast-pitch softball for over 40-years and he spent many hours coaching the game to instill his passion onto a younger generation.

A Catholic education was very important to Joe and his wife, Caroline so presenting this scholarship to a West Point Guardian Angels Central Catholic senior would have made them very happy.

Award: 1-$500 scholarship to a senior baseball, softball or student manager who is attending college. Funds will be sent directly to the college prior to your starting semester/quarter.

Criteria:

West Point Guardian Angels Central Catholic High School senior who is attending college High School baseball player, softball player or student manager: Complete the essay question (100-300 words)

Essay Question: How have the experiences you gained during your baseball/softball career made you a better student or person?

Essay Due: Monday, March 20, 2026

Applicant Name:

Mailing Address:

Phone:

College Attending:

Address of College:

Admissions/Registrar's Phone or email:

Essay (please attach)